

Hosted by the Liberty University Center for Israel in partnership with the International Christian Embassy of Jerusalem – USA and the Combat Antisemitism Movement

October 22, 2026

Lunch – 11:30am

Opening Prayer – Dr. Dondi Costin, President of Liberty University

Lunch Service

Rev. Dr. Johnnie Moore, Senior Founding Fellow Liberty University Center for Israel and Vice Chancellor and Managing Director of Middle East Studies at Pepperdine University, Washington, D.C.

Coach Bruce Pearl, Former Head Men's Basketball Coach at Auburn University and Chairman of the U.S. Israel Education Association (USIEA)

Ambassador George Deek, Special Envoy of Israel to the Christian World via Zoom

Afternoon Session One – 1:45pm

Antisemitism: A Biblical and Historical Perspective

Dr. Tyson Lambertson, ICEJ USA Director of Outreach: Antisemitism, A Biblical Foundation for Understanding Israel.

Dr. Troy Temple, Director Liberty University Center for Israel and Dean, John W. Rawlings School of Divinity, Liberty Theological Seminary: Israel and the Church: Distinction, Promise, and the Faithfulness of God.

Just War Theory

Dr. A. J. Nolte, Professor in the Robertson School of Government and the Director of the Institute for Israel Studies at Regent University: Just War Theory and The Political Necessity Between the United States and Israel.

Afternoon Session Two – 3:00pm

Antisemitism: How to Recognize and Counter It

Dr. Susan Michael, President, International Christian Embassy Jerusalem USA & Director, American Christian Leaders for Israel: Why should Christians care about antisemitism? Reasons Christians must stand with the Jewish people, how to take action, and available resources.

EJ Kimball, Director of Christian Outreach and Engagement, Combat Antisemitism Movement: The disturbing rise of antisemitism and what it looks like today. Defining modern antisemitism in political, cultural, and online spaces. Explaining coded language, symbols, memes, and disinformation campaigns.

Elan Carr, former Special Envoy to Monitor and Combat Antisemitism under the first Trump Administration: Personal story of his roots to Israel and looking at antisemitism from a historical perspective.

A Personal Perspective on Living in Israel and on the Continuing Conflict – Guest Panel Living in Israel

Lily Mills, Director of Domestic Affairs, Embassy of Israel to the United States

Charity Ana Lewis, Archaeological Researcher

Moderator: EJ Kimball, Director of Christian Outreach and Engagement, Combat Antisemitism Movement

Ministering in Israel

Dr. Tyson Lambertson, ICEJ USA Director of Outreach

Uri Steinberg, CityServe Director – Israel

Dr. Johnnie Moore, Senior Founding Fellow LU Center for Israel

Break: 5:10pm

Evening Session 6:00 PM

Israeli National Anthem – Violinist, Miriam Thompson

US National Anthem – Dr. Samantha Miller

Opening Prayer – Dr. Scott Hicks, Chief Operating Officer of Liberty University

Dinner Service

Answering the Hard Questions

Natasha Hausdorff, Barrister & International Lawyer and Founder of The Center for International Rule of Law.

Eric Enlow, Associate Professor of Law, Director of the Honors Program, Liberty University

Keynote Speaker

The Honorable Leo Terrell, Senior Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights at the U.S. D.O.J.

Closing Remarks: EJ Kimball, Dr. Troy Temple, Dr. Tyson Lambertson